

Rector of Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań requests the pleasure of your company at the Opening lecture in the series of annual seminars held on the eve of the presentation by the President of the Republic of Poland of the Adam Mickiewicz Award for achievements in the German-French-Polish Cooperation ('Weimar Triangle')

to be held on Thursday, 6 September 2012

Lubrański Auditorium, Collegium Minus ul. Wieniawskiego 1, Poznań, Poland

Invited guests will speak in English Simultaneous interpretation will be provided

Agenda:

11.00 Welcoming address:

Prof. dr hab. Bronisław Marciniak

Rector, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań Chairman, Conference of Rectors of Polish Universities

11.05 Introductory remarks:

Prof. dr Klaus-Heinrich Standke

Chairman of the Committee for Support of German-French-Polish Cooperation ('Weimar Triangle'), Berlin/Cabourg former Assistant Director-General, UNESCO, Paris former Director for Science and Technology, United Nations, New York

11.15 Lecture:

Academic Impulses for the Weimar Triangle Cooperation

Dr. Gunter Pleuger

President, European University Viadrina, Frankfurt (Oder) Permanent German Representative at the United Nations former Foreign Minister Advisor on political issues former Secretary General, Foreign Ministry, Federal Republic of Germany: Deputy Foreign Minister

12.30 Discussion

13.00 Buffet lunch

R.S.V.P. until August 17th 2012, phone: +48 61 829 43 67, +48 61 829 43 07